Conopco, Inc.; Prohibited Trade Practices, and Affirmative Corrective Actions

AGENCY: Federal Trade Commission.

ACTION: Consent order.

SUMMARY: In settlement of alleged violations of federal law prohibiting unfair or deceptive acts or practices and unfair methods of competition, this consent order prohibits, among other things, Conopco, Inc., a New York-based manufacturer of margarine and spreads, doing business as Van Den Bergh Foods Company, from misrepresenting the amount of fat, saturated fat, cholesterol or calories in any spread or margarine; and requires the respondent to have adequate scientific substantiation for claims that any margarine or spread reduces the risk of heart disease, or causes or contributes to a risk factor for any disease or health-related condition. In addition, the consent order requires, for three years, that advertisements for Promise margarine or spreads must include the total fat disclosure and must disclose either the percentage of calories derived from fat or the fact that the product is not low in fat.
